

ABOUT YOUR JCC TENNIS PROS

BRYAN COYNE is a USTPA Certified Professional Tennis Instructor who enjoyed working with all ages and levels but specializes in working with children and juniors. He has held numerous positions teaching tennis at Olympic Tennis Club, Dublin Youth Tennis, The Players Club and Swim and Racquet Club as well as involvement in other programs and charity events. He is especially proud of his support for Buddy Up Tennis; a program focused on tennis, fitness and fun for children with Autism/Down Syndrome. A member of the USTA, Bryan is committed to promoting and developing the sport of tennis to JCC members.

MARC WURTZMAN currently teaches tennis at the Olympic Indoor Tennis Club, The Lakes Golf and Country Club, and the Jefferson Country Club. He has played for The Ohio State University from 1993-1997 where he was Team Captain and the #1 Singles player in 1997. He has 14 years experience at various tennis and country clubs in Columbus, Cincinnati, and Madison, WI, where he coached The University of Wisconsin-Madison men's tennis team from 2000-2002. He most recently coached The Ohio State University men's tennis team from 2002-2005.

Both JCC Tennis Pros are USPTA certified and experienced with all ages and ability levels.
