

The Jewish Community Center & Bexley Activities Club present:

A DAY IN CINCINNATI

WITH A VISIT TO THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS

Wednesday April 10, 2013

8:15 am - Motorcoach Report Time

First
A Stop
at Beau
Verre
Stained Glass
Studio

Guests will enjoy meeting the owners of this studio that produces stained glass windows for major churches, cathedrals and private homes all over the world. Guests will watch the stained glass process. Browse the gift shop on the second floor and the gallery on the main floor and basement (Elevator available). Please note that the gift shop offers a fabulous array of unique items, jewelry, handbags and so much more*

$89.⁰⁰ PER PERSON

Lunch at Washington Platform - Dine at Washington Platform Restaurant, which was opened in 1860 as the Johan Armleder Wine and Lager Beer Saloon. Over time, the restaurant went through a myriad of owners and businesses - as a Chinese hand laundry, a produce shop and a boarding house - but was re-established in 1986 as a restaurant.

Lunch is a buffet and consists of:

Fried Chicken, Roast Beef
Scalloped Potatoes and buttered Carrots, Waldorf Salad (apples, walnuts and celery) and Mixed Salad Greens , Included: An assortment of fresh crudites, cheeses, relish and dips. Fresh Rolls and Butter, Cookie and Pie Assortment, Coffee, Tea and Sodas.

Arrive at Cincinnati's Museum Center, for a visit to the exhibit of the DEAD SEA SCROLLS.

In 1947, a shepherd stumbled upon a hidden cave along the shore of the Dead Sea. Concealed inside were ancient scrolls that had not been seen in 2,000 years.

This once-in-a-lifetime exhibit offers more than 600 items including the oldest known copies of the Hebrew Bible, iconic objects from everyday life, artifacts from Jerusalem's City of David and an actual 3-ton stone from Jerusalem's Western Wall.

HEAD SETS INCLUDED FOR EACH GUEST

Space is limited. Payment is reservation. Deadline is March 15.
Contact Debbie Vinocur 559-6214 or dvinocur@columbusjcc.org for more information.