Families Welcome

Recognizing the achievements, accomplishments and awards of our Jewish community youth groups, organizations and individuals

Scholarship Opportunities:

JET Photo Contest — $100 First Place, $50 Second Place, $50 Third Place

Each teen is allowed to submit one photo that he/she took that exemplifies and characterizes the question "What is a Jewish Identity?" Photos can be submitted to bnitzberg@columbusjcc.org. All photos must be submitted by April 8th.

Goldsmith Kavod-Gadol Award — $500 First Place

This award is given to one male and one female Jewish High School graduating Senior. The David and Janet W. Goldsmith Kavod Gadol Teen Leadership Fund was established to recognize young Jewish leaders in our community. To qualify for the award, a teen must belong to a Jewish Youth Group, and display both leadership in the community and involvement in volunteering. Teens are to be NOMINATED by their youth group directors, advisors, synagogue officials, or other professional.

Cole Essay Contest — $1000 First Place

"How Will I Perpetuate My Jewish Knowledge and Practice As a College Freshman, and Why?" Envision your life as a college freshman, and in no more than two thousand words, describe how you will maintain your Jewish identity.

The David and Irene Cole Essay Contest of the Columbus Jewish Foundation is open to any Columbus area Jewish high school senior who will be graduating this June. Deadline is Monday, April 8th, 2013 at 8:00 am.
