JCAMPS

THE SUMMER THEY WANT. THE CAMP YOU TRUST.

THE JCAMPS DIFFERENCE

Trained & Experienced Staff
JCamps is led by year-round directors with decades of combined camp experience. Counselors complete 25+ hours of training in child development, team building, and First Aid/CPR certification.

More Than a Name
With ratios of 1:10 or lower, every camper has a counselor who knows them.

Daily Swim
All campers get free swim each day. Chaverim campers also receive swim lessons from certified Water Safety Instructors.

Transportation Included
Families with campers of multiple ages can drop off all in one place, and JCamps will take care of getting them to camp with free transportation from our 3 sites in Bexley, New Albany, & Worthington.

A Place for Every Camper
The Arye Inclusion Program supports campers with disabilities. Arye campers get a great camp experience with their peers and a 1:3 staff-to-camper ratio at Chaverim and Hoover.

Extended Full Camp Day Option
Our new expanded full day option allows you to extend your camp day from 7:30am to 6:00pm for an additional fee.

Rooted in Jewish Values
Every camp activity is rooted in Jewish values like kindness and community. These values are universal, making JCamps a welcoming place for campers of all backgrounds.

Plan your Summer at JCamps

Options for every age & interest

Camp Chaverim
Rising 1st - 3rd Grade

Between daily swim lessons and specialist-led activities, every camper finds something to love, along with the confidence and independence to try something new.

Camp Hoover
Rising 4th - 8th Grade

Adventure is part of every day, from the ropes course and archery range to paddling on the lake. Campers take on new challenges and build leadership skills along the way.

Specialty Camps
Rising 1st - 8th Grade

Each specialty camp is led by experienced coaches and instructors in their field. Focuses include sports, arts, and STEM.

Theatre Camp
Rising 1st - 8th Grade

Three-week intensives led by theatre artists and educators, including a new camp just for rising 6th–8th graders. Campers take a full musical from auditions all the way to the final bow, performing for their families and fellow campers.

READY: A Jewish Teen Response Lab

Sunday, February 21 | 1:00 – 4:30 pm

Open to Jewish high school students.
Location will be shared with registered participants.

Ever heard someone say something hurtful about Jews, Judaism or Israel and wondered how to respond?

You are not alone. You don't have to figure it out alone.

Find your people. Find your voice. Leave ready.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Work through situations teens actually face, at school and online. Practice speaking up, backing up a friend, and knowing when to report.

WHAT YOU'LL LEAVE WITH

A READY Response Training Certificate, skills you'll use for years, and new friends from Jewish teens across Columbus. Emotional support tools to care for yourself after a tough encounter.

CHOOSING JOY

JChats Season 2

JChats Season 2 is about Choosing Joy — and the resilience it takes to choose it again and again. Not a feeling you wait for. A practice: in conversation, in community, on purpose. Choosing Joy starts here.

LINDA KASS

MAR 8, 2027

Author, Founder of Gramercy Books

Linda will discuss her fourth novel, World News from Waverley High. It is a tale of identity, activism, and finding your voice during the civil rights era. This coming-of-age novel set at an urban high school captures a singular moment in American history through the eyes of one unforgettable girl.

ROBERTA KWALL

MAY 6, 2027

Annual Gaynor Family Lecture

Israel, politics, religious practice, and antisemitism increasingly divide American Jews, even within families. Join law professor Roberta Kwall at JChats as she shares insights from her new book, Polarized: Why American Jews Are Divided and What to Do About It, and her hopeful vision for a strong Jewish center.

AFTER THE SIRENS

MAY 10, 2027

Yom HaZikaron

A night honoring Yom HaZikaron and the fallen. Hear inspirational stories told by heroes from Israel about the strength in choosing joy in the face of adversity.
